

JOURNÉE D'ÉTUDE

Democracy in practice: opportunities and challenges.

Experiencing citizenship on the island of Ireland.

organisée par l'axe 2
(Droits humains et enjeux démocratiques)
du GIS EIRE
(Etudes Irlandaises Réseaux et Enjeux)
et les laboratoires
CAS et ALTER
(UPPA).

25

septembre 2026

UNIVERSITÉ TOULOUSE - JEAN JAURÈS
Centre de Ressources des Langues (CRL), salle LA060

Contacts: marie-violaine.louvet@univ-tlse2.fr et joana.etchart@univ-pau.fr

Democracy in practice: opportunities and challenges.

Experiencing citizenship on the island of Ireland.

9h – 10h30

Historical Perspectives on Consent and Democratic Participation in Northern Ireland

Claire Mansour (UT2J)

Pushing democracy to its limits:

The People's Democracy and the 1969 Stormont election

Joana Etchart (UPPA)

Historiography of the notion of 'consent' in the Northern Irish context

10h30-11h Pause café

11h- 12h

Conférence plénière : Are the Irish citizens' assemblies the forerunners of all citizens' assemblies?

Vanessa Barbé, Professeure en Droit public, Université Paris 8, Vincennes, Saint-Denis

12h-13h30 Pause déjeuner

13h30-15h

Participation and Power: Citizens, Institutions and Public Debate

Karine Bigand (Aix-Marseille Université)

Sharing authority and engaging communities:

museums as agents of citizen empowerment in Northern Ireland

Charlotte Rault (UT Capitole)

#IrelandIsFull: Disinformation, Anti-Immigration Mobilization, and the Challenges of Regulating

Online Speech in Ireland

Marie-Violaine Louvet (UT2J)

Political activism and the use of the Irish Parliament to promote the boycott of Israel

15h-15h30 Pause café

15h30-16h30

Conférence plénière : Power-sharing and governance in Northern Ireland: Time for democratic reform?

Sean Haughey, Senior Lecturer, Institute of Irish Studies, University of Liverpool

Conclusion